MEET the CREW

Stipe Vuko
Captain - Croatian

Stipe is an experienced and passionate captain with a wealth of qualifications and knowledge in the yachting industry. He has been working in this field since 2013 and is highly motivated and enthusiastic to progress his career. His educational background in Marine Engineering has enabled him to apply his extensive studies in a practical manner. Fluent in Croatian, English and with a beginner's level of Italian, Stipe is an effective communicator who is adept at understanding the guests' style of vacation and needs, providing them with the best possible options in any given moment. He is passionate about creating a relaxed atmosphere with trust between the crew and guests, and his friendly and professional demeanor, coupled with his warm smile, makes guests feel welcome and secure from the moment they arrive.

Antonio Radovčić
Chef - Croatian

Antonio is an experienced chef with an expansive knowledge of Mediterranean, Croatian, and Japanese cuisine. For the past five years, he has been working as a chef on a yacht, taking advantage of the opportunity to travel the world and pursue his passion. His dedication and meticulousness are evident in the exquisite dishes he creates, leaving guests in awe. Antonio takes a personal approach with guests, ensuring that they are satisfied with the food he prepares. In his spare time, he enjoys traveling to new places and exploring different cuisines, always on the lookout for new inspirations. He is natively fluent in Croatian and proficient in English, and his hobbies include biking, diving, and learning about sports cars.

MEET the CREW

Goran Šubašić
Deckhand - Croatian

Goran has been passionate about the sea since childhood, when his grandfather, a fisherman, would take him out fishing and teach him how to cook on a boat during their summers together. After graduating from Graphic Design school and working as a graphic designer for several years, Goran decided to pursue a career in the yachting industry. Since 2011, he has worked as a deckhand/chef on both private and charter vessels, gaining experience in boat systems, berthing, and maintenance, as well as preparing and serving meals to guests' exacting standards. In his spare time, Goran enjoys cooking, woodworking, listening to music, and playing/learning drums. He is a native Croatian speaker and is also fluent in English.

Gloria
Stewardess - Croatian

Gloria is an enthusiastic and experienced stewardess who brings a vibrant energy to her role on the luxury yacht Quantum. Her high motivation, enthusiasm, and adaptability are her three greatest strengths when it comes to working on a yacht charter, making her a preferred choice in the industry. Gloria's unwavering commitment to providing top-notch service ensures that guests have an enjoyable experience. She is approachable, patient, and her warm smile is a constant presence, creating a welcoming atmosphere onboard. During her leisure time, Gloria engages in various activities. She has a particular fondness for water sports activities, hiking, cycling, dancing, and singing, which showcase her adventurous spirit and love for staying active. She is a native Croatian speaker and has a fluent command of English.
